BHI Energy Announces Organizational Changes

PLYMOUTH, MA, July 1, 2010 – BHI Energy today announces the retirement of Mr. Bill Nevelos from his role as Chief Executive Officer of Bartlett Holdings, Inc., d.b.a. BHI Energy, after his twelve year tenure with the company. Bill is succeeded by Mr. Bob Decensi, who has transitioned from his former position as President and Chief Operating Officer to that of President and Chief Executive Officer of BHI Energy. Bill will continue with the company in an advisory role and member of the Board of Directors.

“In this time of unsurpassed support for clean energy, BHI Energy is well-positioned and has experienced unprecedented growth. This will certainly continue and improve under Bob’s leadership,” comments Bill Nevelos.
